Poem for the month of March:

What Easter Means to Me

Author: Joanna Fuchs

Easter morning, God be praised,
Jesus Christ from death was raised.

On Good Friday, Jesus died;
All for us, He was crucified.

Jesus bore the pain for me,
From my sin, to set me free.

Death could not confine our Lord,
And to life He was restored.

Easter morn we consecrate,
His resurrection to celebrate.

Jesus’ love means when we die,
We’ll live in heaven with Him on high.

Our Savior loves us awesomely;
That’s what Easter means to me.
